To Seek Justice

“The NACCP family embraces all as we seek love, justice and peace in our fragile world. We celebrate our differences as we demonstrate openness, compassion and understanding.”

■ As a family of God’s people and believers in the teachings of Jesus Christ, we will seek to be:

- a haven of safety for those who might need one
- a light of hope for all who seek healing
- and a ministry of compassion for those who feel left out.

■ We will seek to maintain an open dialogue amongst ourselves as well as with those outside our congregation, ever striving to understand one another in hopes that all may grow from our willingness to remain open.

Love Kindness

- We will proudly welcome ALL without question. We will celebrate the diversity of God’s gifts among us. We will serve the greater good with intentional passion as we seek to deepen our understanding of the life we are called to live.
- With open minds, open hearts, open doors and open arms, we will move forward as a diverse community, embracing everyone’s unique faith journey and empowering not only ourselves but those outside our congregation as well.
- We will be committed to be responsible stewards of the environment and to honor our connectedness with all creation.

Walk Humbly with Your God

The Labyrinth Under The Trees

A gift to the community in honor of NACCP’s 40th Anniversary in 2011, 80,000 pounds of locally mined Granite Gneiss were moved into place. Rocks from across the world have been added by travelers over the years.

On the path, Native American Medicine Wheels mark the four directions and serve to focus the mind and to relax the body as one walks the labyrinth.

The Prayer Wall at the entrance honors and remembers loved ones.
